This Week:

Monday, April 26, 6:00-8:30 PM- FH in use

Next Week's Text: Acts 8:26-40

Looking Ahead:

June 13 – Wear item of clothing from a place you've vacationed

June 30, July 7, July 14 – Vacation Bible School

Prayer Concerns:

- ◆ Our two church families to pray for this week: Fern Grace and Andrea Yoder
- ◆ Be in prayer for churches as they discern what post-Covid church life should look like.
- ◆ Dale Stoltzfus is currently serving as our bishop. Take time to pray for Dale this week.
- ◆ Remember those in our nursing homes and those caring for them.

Praise Notes:

- ◆ Friday is National Arbor Day. Take time to thank God for the many beautiful trees that we enjoy in this area!
- ◆ Give thanks for the many children in our congregation.
- ◆ What time is it? If you still have breath, it is "praise God" time. Let everything that has breath, praise the Lord!

Food and flowers! I love them both! Thank you so much for these gifts as well as your kind words of affirmation in my role as Administrative Assistant. It is a joy to serve this church in this way!

The members of the Amish and Mennonite Heritage Center in Belleville invite you to their Spring Open House this afternoon (Sunday, April 25) from 2:00 to 4:00 PM. Bring a friend!

The annual meeting of the Amish and Mennonite Heritage Center will be held Friday, May 7 at 7:00 PM at the Belleville Community Hall. Genealogist Fran Peachey, Coeditor of A Genealogical History of Moses and Barbara \(Yoder\) Peachey (the "Peachey Book") will speak about the Challenges and Rewards of this project.

This is the last week to collect eggs, cheese and butter for Shelter Services. Please put donations in the kitchen refrigerator on the shelf labeled "Shelter Donations".

Members and friends of Maple Grove Mennonite Church are invited to attend a special exhibition on view at the Palmer Museum of Art at the Penn State campus until the end of May. “Field Language: the Painting and Poetry of Warren and Jane Rohrer” features some fifty works, including paintings and works on paper, poetry, an Amish quilt, and examples of Pennsylvania German painted crockery and furniture. This gorgeous collection invites viewers to contemplate issues of land use, the resilience of rural communities and cultures, and our relationship with agriculture, seasonal change, labor, and the land. The exhibition is free to the public, but timed tickets must be reserved at <https://palmermuseum.psu.edu/#current-exhibits>. A digital companion with more information and videos is available at <https://sites.psu.edu/fieldlanguage/>. As a special note, an article about Warren Rohrer and his Mennonite upbringing in Lancaster was recently published in conjunction with the exhibition.
